During the gett procedure you will read a number of statements from a text that we will provide. Most people read these texts in English, but if it would be easier for you to read them in Hebrew, please tick this box.

Melbourne Beth Din works with the Unchain My Heart organisation, who can provide a trained support person to be with you on the day of your Gett process. If you would like to use this service, please tick this box.

The following are required to be attached to this application:

1. A copy of the Ketubah (Jewish Marriage Certificate).
2. A copy of the civil marriage certificate.
3. Where available, a copy of the civil divorce document.
4. Copies of the front page of both the husband and wife’s passport OR a copy of each person’s driver’s licence.
5. Copies of documents relating to any previous marriages and/or divorces of either partner. This refers to documents issued by both a Civil Court or a Beth Din.
6. A cheque made out to Melbourne Beth Din for the appropriate fee. (See Attachment B of the enclosed Guide).

Where for any reason, it is not possible for one party to provide all the information or documents listed here, the forms should be filled out as best possible and returned to The Registrar of the Melbourne Beth Din at the address shown above. Where any requested item is not available, please supply a reason as to why this is so. If necessary, you will then receive further instructions from the Beth Din regarding the necessary item. Should you be unable to procure the item or information from the other party, please advise the Beth Din and we will attempt to do so on your behalf. In the absence of vital documentation or in the event of a lack of cooperation from one of the parties, it may be necessary to meet with the Beth Din in order to discuss the process of the application in those circumstances.

The execution of the gett by the Melbourne Beth Din (“the Beth Din”) by or on behalf of the parties is subject to the following terms and conditions which the applicant hereby acknowledges:

1. Rulings of the Beth Din and the conduct of any of its members and Dayanim, in relation to any issues brought before it for consideration and/or determination according to Halachic law or the precepts of the Jewish religion, are not to be the subject of any proceedings before secular courts or authorities of any character or description and the parties, in applying to bring such matters for consideration and/or determination by the Beth Din, expressly and irrevocably waive, renounce and relinquish any cause of action, right of complaint or other remedy whatsoever, in any civil court, tribunal or jurisdiction, against the Beth Din, its members and Dayanim, or against Melbourne Beth Din Nominees Limited or its officers or employees, arising out of or in connection with those matters and any actual or alleged conduct on the part of any of the aforesaid in connection therewith.
2. The Beth Din, at its discretion, may make audio recordings of any interviews and proceedings in connection with the gett application. Such recordings may be used by the Dayanim and officers of the Beth Din for any relevant purpose associated with the execution of the gett, or dealing with any complaint that should arise from its execution. The Beth Din expressly undertakes that, except for these purposes, the recordings shall not be made available in any form to any third party without the written permission of the parties involved.

I _____ (name of party) understand and agree to the above conditions, agree to co-operate fully in the giving and receiving of the gett and in all matters associated therewith, including the payment of the appropriate fees, and request the Melbourne Beth Din to take all necessary steps to enable the said gett to be executed.
